Chapter 1 by Marilu Ramos

Monica was eating her breakfast when she heard the news woman, saying that the world was going to be over in one week. First she was scared that she just have a week to do all she wanted to do before being dead and she was only 11 years old!!!!!!

Chapter 2 by Nika

Monica was born in Oklahoma, but her father was russian, she knew that he lived in Moscow. She lived with her mother, stepfather and 2 younger brothers. Monica felt lonely and often dreamed of going to that snow country and find her father there. So she started planning her Russian runaway....

Chapter 3 by Leonard

It was only the second day of the week, when Monica grabbed the phone, and called her grandparents, saying that her mom let her go to Moscow, but she was sick, she told them that if they could pick her up on the park. They said yes. That night, she was on the plane, like her grandparents promised. Monica heard a loud explosion, She stared out the window....s h o c k e d....

Chapter 4 by Henry Southern

There was a colossal ash cloud minutes away from the plane. All that Monica could think was that she wanted to get to Russia to see her Father. But she was not certain she would make it there. BANG. Monica awoke from her slumber at the sound of the plane landing, she was shaking, beads of sweat running down her face. There was no ash cloud, it was just the color of a pigment in her mind, a nightmare. Taking a deep breath, she walked to the airport, to collect her father. She was the last of her kind. Day 4. Monica realised she was the most of all of them.

Chapter 5 by intellikat

Day 5. Only two days left before the world ends. Returned to the park today. No grandparents. But a hell of a lot of pigeons.

Chapter 6 by intellikat

Day 6. One day before doomsday. Arrived at the park early today. Still no grandparents. I think I'm alone. My father left an address in case of an emergency. I'm going to see if I can find him there tonight. Just in time for the world to end.

Chapter 7 by intellikat

Monica went to the apartment of her father that she had the address for. BANG. There were explosions all day long. BOOM. The whole world was fighting. Monica wanted to meet her father before the end. BOOM. She went up the stairs and knocked on the door. He answered the door and hugged her. They had tea together and Monica told him about her life. He told her about Moscow and that her grandparents were dead. At nighttime he put her to bed on the couch with the light of fire outside. BOOM BOOM. Explosions still. Tomorrow would be the last day of life.

Chapter 8 by Luke Meyers

Last chapter. Everybody dies. You thought we were joking? Lights out, yo.
